SECTION H – ACKNOWLEDGMENTS AND CERTIFICATIONS

If you have any questions about the benefits and services that are covered, provided, limited, or excluded under the group coverage(s) to which this application applies, please contact your Sales Representative before signing this application.

Note: "The Company" as used here means the group applying for coverage as indicated in Section A – Group Name & Address of this application.

I certify that I am an officer or employee of the Company, that I am duly authorized to execute this application on behalf of the Company, and that the Company:

a) Applies for the group coverage(s) selected in Section G – Benefit Options of this Group Master Application.

b) Authorizes any person or other entity to release to Regence BlueShield (Regence) any information requested by Regence in connection with the processing of this application.

c) Acknowledges that, where permitted by law, Regence may choose not to approve this application and any premium received will be returned if the application for group coverage(s) is not approved.

d) Acknowledges that coverage is not in effect until Regence accepts this application, establishes an effective date of coverage, and issues the group contract(s) to the Company.

e) Acknowledges that, if this application is approved by Regence, it will form a part of the group contract(s) issued by Regence and agrees that the Company will be bound by the terms and conditions of the entire group contract(s).

f) Acknowledges that eligibility standards (e.g., minimum hours, dependent eligibility, probationary period(s) etc.) must be established at the time of initial application, may be changed only at contract renewal, and must be adhered to for all employees and dependents.

g) Acknowledges that it has selected the group coverage(s) to be offered to its employees based upon information provided by Regence and that no producer or consultant had or has authorization to modify the terms of the offer. All material terms of coverage are set forth in the group contract(s), of which this application, if accepted, is but one part.

h) Agrees to make payroll and other records directly related to employee participation levels or to employees' coverage, premiums, or contributions under the group contract(s) available to Regence for inspection. This provision shall survive the termination of the group contract(s). Upon renewal or anytime throughout the contract period, the Company agrees to provide Regence, upon its request, verifications of employee participation levels.

i) Agrees that, except with regard to a statutory continuation of coverage or unless the change is approved in writing by an authorized representative of Regence, at no time shall any employee be permitted or required to make contributions for coverage at a rate higher than the employee contribution rate represented herein.

j) Agrees the group contract(s) will determine the contractual provisions, including procedures, exclusions, and limitations, relating to the coverage and will govern in the event of conflict with any benefits comparison, summary, or other description of the coverage.

k) Agrees to deliver, or otherwise make available to enrollees, all Regence paper or online member documents and other coverage-related materials.

l) Agrees to make all coverage options available to all employees and dependents who satisfy eligibility requirements.

m) Acknowledges that benefits may be added or deleted only at the time of initial application, at contract renewal, when required by law, or as mutually agreed between the Company and Regence in accordance with the group contract(s).

n) Acknowledges that Regence must be notified (in the manner described in the group contract(s)) when there is a change to Company information (e.g., name, address, phone number, contact person, ownership status, etc.).

o) Acknowledges that contracting physicians, hospitals, and other health care providers are independent contractors and are neither producers nor employees of Regence, that Regence does not provide health care services, that Regence cannot guarantee any results or outcomes of care, and that Regence is responsible for the quality of health care received only as provided by law.

p) Certifies under penalty of perjury that all information provided and statements made in this application are accurate and complete to the best of its knowledge and belief and acknowledges that Regence will rely in part on the information in this application as the basis for Regence's decision on whether to approve this application and issue any group contract(s). It is a crime to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading information to an insurance company for the purposes of defrauding the company. Penalties include imprisonment, fines, and denial of insurance benefits. In addition, Regence will have the right to collect any claims payments or other damages. If Regence continues a group contract with the Company after untrue, incorrect, or incomplete information is found to have been provided, and if as a result of correcting false information the Company no longer qualifies for the rate quoted, I understand that Regence will have the right to adjust the rates to the appropriate level retroactive to the date the misrepresentation occurred, and the Company will be required to pay the rate adjustment within 30 days of the date of notice by Regence.

q) Agrees that any controversy or claim between the Company and Regence arising out of or relating to the group contract(s), or the breach thereof, whether involving a claim in tort, contract, or otherwise, shall be subject to final resolution through binding arbitration. The Company and Regence agree that the arbitrator's award shall be binding, may include an apportionment of attorney fees and other fees and costs, and may be enforced in any court with the requisite jurisdiction. Any such arbitration shall be conducted in accordance with the Commercial Arbitration Rules of the American Arbitration Association and in King County, Washington (WA), unless mutually agreed otherwise by the parties. If any enrollee or former enrollee (or person claiming to be an enrollee or former enrollee) makes any claim or brings any action or proceeding arising out of or relating to the group contract(s) and to which Regence or the Company becomes a party, Regence and the Company agree to cooperate in the defense of such claim, action, or proceeding and to resolve any controversy or claim between Regence and the Company through arbitration under this paragraph only after the resolution of the enrollee's (or alleged enrollee's) claim.

r) Appoints the producer of record (if any) indicated in Section D – Producer Information as the Company's representative in matters of group coverage benefits provided by Regence. This appointment is in effect on the same day as the group coverage(s) and remains in force until rescinded in writing.

s) Acknowledges that if the Company has a producer, that producer may receive bonuses, commissions, administrative services fees, or other compensation, including non-cash compensation from Regence. Incentives may be based on any of several factors, including the size of the Company's business, the products the Company purchases, the producer's volume of business with Regence, and other services the producer provides to the Company. These incentives may have an indirect impact on the Company's rates. For more information, please contact the producer or Regence.

t) Acknowledges that TMJ has been included as a covered benefit.

u) Acknowledges that Regence's statements in this application, including the descriptions of laws in E.3 through 7, are not legal advice and that the Company should look solely to its legal advisor with legal questions or concerns.

For assistance in administering your group's benefit plan, see the Group Administrator Guide on regence.com. The guide provides information about benefits, eligibility, enrollment, monthly billing statements, and claims submission to help you answer your employees' questions.
